Maria Golia, on Bureaucracy

“The elevator in the century-old building where I live in downtown Cairo plays a stabilizing role in my existence; it’s the first thing I hear in the morning and the last at night. the engine clearing its throat as its gears grab on to start the haul, its steady murmur is the voice of a friend that says however dysfunctional things are, we can still make it to the top.”

auteur : Maria Golia

éditeur : Jean Colombain

mise en page : Thomas Bush année de publication : 2019 (2015)

prix : 2 € TTC

pages : 16

tirage : 50 exemplaires

format : A5

langue : française

couverture : vert menthe

catalogue : S008